

Getting to Know the Rules (and Classmates)

*We will divide up the rules and procedures,
create posters with text and graphics,
and discuss the rules and procedures as a class.*

We will also introduce ourselves to our classmates.

1. Students are assigned to a rule.
 - a. Computer 1 => Rule 1, etc.
 - b. Computer 14 => Intro , part a (“The Crossroads School...to be successful.”)
 - c. Computer 15 => Intro, part b (“Please do you. Part...community.”)
 - d. Computer 16 => Intro, part c (“Always act...equipment.”)
 - e. Computer 17 => Bottom of page (“Violation of...privileges.”)
 - f. Computer 18 => Bottom of page (“I understand...programs.”)
2. Read and understand your assigned rule. Ask questions to clarify your understanding of the rule.
3. Create a slide that introduces you to the class:
 - a. Insert another slide
 - b. Create content that introduces one or more of your interests to the class
 - c. Include your name and one or more images
 - d. Keep it simple
4. Create one slide in PowerPoint that explains the rule. Include:
 - a. Top Left of Slide: The rule number
 - b. Centered Title: The rule (verbatim from Rules Contract)
 - c. Include: The rule translated into your own words.
 - d. Include: Images, graphics, diagrams that help to explain the rule.
5. Format the slide so that your content...
 - a. fills the entire slide,
 - b. is easy to read
 - c. is neat, organized and professional looking
6. Save as:
 - a. File name: (Save as...) rule1_yourname.ppt, rule2_yourname.ppt, rule3_yourname.ppt, etc.
 - b. File location: Your folder within the Documents folder
7. Turn PowerPoint file in to Mr. Glickman by dragging your final saved file to the Shared folder. Follow his special Shared folder instructions before doing this.
8. Present to class:
 - a. Each student will introduce himself or herself using the slide as a visual.
 - b. Each student will lead the class discussion for each assigned rule by presenting the slide to the class and explaining the rule.
